Moroobool Police Beat have been liaising with the community concerning issues around the area. Our Neighbourhood Watch Program is also in this area.

Moroobool Police Beat are actively seeking advice and suggestions from the community on how to improve safety and security in our local parks. If you have any insightful ideas or thoughts, no matter how simple or complex, please advise the beat.

Acting Senior Constable: Rebecca Tucker is our Neighbourhood Watch Liaison Officer; with the assistance of Constable Nicki Wills are kept busy in assisting with the safety of the community.

It was pleasing to see Police patrols approximately 10.30pm Saturday 25th patrolling the Bruce Highway, A car passed a vehicle with a wide birth driving all over the road, this driver was apprehended by police in a patrol vehicles. A short distance further along Mulgrave Road a paddy wagon was stationary with two police officers having discussions with a female person.

This is of interest to the community; police have a constant job to keep law and order in our city, and uphold the safety for the community. Keep up the good work it is appreciated.

Cairns Police also provide support to Victims of crime 65+ years, security audits and referrals to other agencies when required. Acting Sergeant Cary Coolican is the District Crime Prevention Coordinator and Cairns District Recruiting Office, Cairns Police Station can be contacted by Ph: 403307028.
