Secure your home:

You don't need to spend lots of money on security. Simple and low-cost changes can make your house look occupied and deter intruders. The following suggestions are a guide to what can be done.

Outside security:

- Make sure your house number is easy to see from the street-both night and day.
- Trim bushes and trees that obscure windows.
- Consider removing bushes or trees that could be used as hiding places by intruders.
- Ensure that doorway and outside lighting will illuminate your yard.
- Consider installing sensor lights that turn on when you come home at night, and will deter prowlers.
- Check your lights regularly to make sure they are working.
- Consider keeping a dog.
- Consider securing your electricity meter box. Your electricity supplier can help arrange this. (Energex ph: 13 12 53, Ergon Energy ph: 13 10 46)
- Keep ladders and tools locked in your garage, garden shed or under the house.
- Lock up wheelie bins or keep them under the house.

Property marking:

Engravers are available for loan through the Neighbourhood Watch Program. Registration forms are available on request.
